Ministry Partner Program

What is a Ministry Partnership?

As a ministry leader, you're working tirelessly to further your mission. Finding creative ways to increase financial support or build relationships with donors can feel overwhelming. We want to take some of this weight off your shoulders.

Through our Ministry Partner program, the Ten Talents Foundation provides training, resources, and funds to help qualified nonprofits and churches fulfill their missions more effectively, remain healthy, and mobilize a movement of generosity through the responsible and strategic management of their gifts and donations.

A Ministry Partnership is a year-long commitment and can be renewed annually.

We help Ministry Partners:

- Accept larger cash and non-cash gifts

Nonprofits and churches often ask for cash gifts due to the simplicity of the transaction, but 90% of peoples' wealth is in non-cash assets (e.g., homes, property, stocks, crops). The Ten Talents Foundation serves as the "back office" for Ministry Partners to help them accept and process larger cash and non-cash gifts.
- Create and manage Ministry Funds

As a foundation, Ten Talents has the ability to create and house a variety of fund accounts (e.g., Ministry Funds, endowments, scholarship funds) for partners. This eliminates administrative costs, allowing ministries to focus on their mission.
- Grow through resources, training and connection
 - 2 training workshops annually
 - Support in accepting and processing asset-based, non-cash gifts (Resources, referrals, and direct assistance)
 - Communication resources for print, web, and social media helping donors understand how they can give to the ministry through the Ten Talents Foundation
 - Ongoing relationship building opportunities with other Ten Talents Ministry Partners
 - Ministry Partner highlight in Ten Talents' annual report
